

DAVID FERNÁNDEZ-ORDÓÑEZ HERNÁNDEZ,

Dr. Ingeniero de Caminos by the Polytechnic University of Madrid

(Dr. MSc. Civil Engineer), Secretary General of fib, International Federation for Structural Concrete.

Has been:

Chairman of fib Commission 6, Prefabrication. Convener of the groups of Affordable Housing and Sustainability of Precast Structures and Secretary of the group Bridges, all of them of fib (Fédération Internationale du Béton).

Lecturer at the Technical High School of Civil Engineers of Madrid.

Polytechnic University of Madrid.

Technical Manager of Pacadar and Prefabricados Castelo, both precast concrete companies in Spain for buildings and bridges.

Former President of Commission 2, Materials of Ache, Spanish association for structural concrete.

Member of the Board of the Juanelo Turriano Foundation, dedicated to the study of the history of technology.

Has written more than 130 publications on technology and history of technology.